Article 1

The Audax Club Parisien, is organising from 20 to 24 August 2007 the PARIS-BREST-PARIS 1200 km "Brevet de Randonneurs Mondiaux" (at unrestricted speed), in which riders may have no support except that authorised by the organisers. PARIS-BREST-PARIS is held within the framework of the FFCT event charter.

Article 2 - Conditions of entry

PARIS-BREST-PARIS Randonneur is open solely to cycle tourists of either sex who are at least 18 years old on the start day who hold FFCT, UFOLEP, or FSCT licences for 2007 and to foreign riders, whether or not they belong to a club. Riders must have completed in 2007 "Brevets de Randonneurs Mondiaux" qualifying events of 200, 300, 400, and 600 km, organised in France or abroad and validated exclusively by Audax Club Parisien.

The number of participants will be approximately 4500. In case of limitation, priority will be given to licensees in the following order, FFCT and Foreign participants, then riders holding UFOLEP or FSGT licences.

Riders must supply a medical certificate less than three months old, attesting that they are physically capable of covering 1200 km without any risk to their health.

Article 3 - Cycles

Any machine with two or three wheels steered by a handlebar and propelled by muscle power via a transmission consisting of one or several chainsets may be used. The machine must be no more than 1 metre wide.. Machines not meeting these criteria will have to be vetted by AUDAX CLUB PARISIEN. Tri-bars and all forms of extended bars are forbidden.

Machines must possess a lighting system powerful enough to be visible at a distance of 100 m from the front and 150 m from the rear. It must be securely fixed and permanently on the cycle, even during daytime, and be able to be used at all times. At the rear flashing red LEDs are forbidden.

It is strongly recommended that two lighting systems be provided - torch, dynamo or non-flashing LED.

Lights must be switched on from nightfall to sunrise or whenever visibility is insufficient, whether the participant is alone or in a group.

If a participant is stopped because of no lighting or insufficient lighting, he will only be allowed to continue once the lighting failure has been repaired, unless he has emergency lighting. In this case he may continue to the next control. Riders are advised to complete at least a 400 km or 600 km event on the same machine that will be used for PBP.

In order to facilitate checks, a number plate is issued to each participant.

It must remain fixed to the cycle frame for the whole duration of the ride.

Article 4 -Entry

Individual entries will be accepted from 1 June to 1 July 2007. RUSA members must use the RUSA PBP 2007 paper entry form, found in the May issue of AMERICAN RANDONNEUR or on the RUSA PBP web page. RUSA members must submit the entry form accompanied by the required documents by mail. If you provide an email address on your entry form, you will receive a response via email.

The entry must be accompanied by:

1) a medical certificate less than 3 months old

2) proof of medical insurance

3) a recent identity photo 1.4 inches x 1 inch

4) three self-adhesive mailing labels

5) payment by check in dollars made out to Randonneurs USA for the amount of the entry, fee plus an extra items and/or fees.

Entry Fee:

The PBP 2007 entry fee for RUSA members is $160.00. The entry fee includes one DVD of the 16th PBP, which will be made available in January of 2008. The entry fee is payable by check, money order or by Paypal. (Paypal users must pay the $5 fee.)

Delivery Methods:

PBP entry form, check, photo, and other required documents may be sent by USPS mail, Express Mail, UPS Letter, Fed Ex or other delivery service. PBP entry forms may not be submitted by fax or email.

Send entry to:

Randonneurs USA - PBP 2007 10 Bliss Mine Road Middletown RI 02842

Entry Confirmation Pack:

You will receive entry confirmation and instructions from the ACP via email, if you indicated an email address on the PBP entry form. If you did not indicate an email address, you will receive entry confirmation and instructions from the ACP by mail.

Article 5: Cancellation

By the participant: Participants will be reimbursed if they have taken out the cancellation insurance offered by the organizer.

By the organizer: If the event has to be cancelled by the organizer because of unforeseen circumstances, whether or not the organizer is responsible, participants will be reimbursed only an amount corresponding to the entry fee and cost of requested meals. No other indemnity will be paid. If cancellation is due to an outbreak of animal disease or to a medical situation, which is an eventuality not covered by the organizer's insurance, a deduction of $50 will be made from the reimbursed sum.

In the two preceding cases:

- the order for the jersey will be honoured and therefore not reimbursed if the order has already been placed by Audax Club Parisien at the date of cancellation of the event.
- The "Super Randonneur" medal will still be delivered and no reimbursement will be made (6 \in).

Article 6 - Equipment

A reflective vest or crossbelt or reflective garment MUST be worn when riding at night (this equiment must be presented at the cycle check). If your reflective gear is obscured (perhaps because you are carrying a backpack or riding a recumbent) ensure you have additional reflective material to ensure you are visible.

Light coloured clothing is recommended for night riding.

It is highly recommended that a rigid helmet be worn throughout the event.

It is recommended that the official PBP jersey or a club jersey be worn. Professional cycling team jerseys are prohibited.

Article 7 - Routes and controls

Subject to permission from the authorities for use of the planned routes, the itinerary is that included in your entry pack.

The outward and return routes are marked by different coloured arrows. The itinerary contains fixed and secret controls, i.e.:

Start from the Gymnase des Droits de l'Homme at SAINT-QUENTIN-en-YVE-LINES (GUYANCOURT), VILLAINES-LA-JUHEL, FOUGÈRES, TINTÉNIAC, LOUDÉAC, CARHAIX, BREST, for the outward route.

For the return additional controls at MORTAGNE AU PERCHE and DREUX. A food stop is provided on the outward journey at MORTAGNE AU PERCHE.

Participants must keep to the assigned route. Your attention is drawn to the fact that the insurance cover will be invalid if you deviate from the official route.

Riders and support crews must, everywhere and at all times act correctly towards the controllers.

The organisers reserve the right to modify the route or the control points mentioned above should authorisation to use a certain route not be granted by the competent authorities

Article 8 - Responsibilities and insurance

Participants must, whatever the circumstances, respect and obey the highway code note particularly that the use of a mobile telephone is forbidden whilst riding.

It is especially to be noted that cyclists participating in PARIS-BREST-PARIS do so at their own risk and do not have personal insurance coverage unless they have taken out individual insurance including a repatriation option for non-French participants

A "Responsabilité Civile - Défense et Recours" policy has been taken out by the organisers for the duration of the event, for all material or corporal damage caused to a third party by a participant.

All participants should take out additional cover for medical assistance and repatriation.

This policy does not cover any damage to cycle or equipment because of a fall or because of theft. Personal insurance must be taken out to cover these risks.

In all places surveillance of personal belongings is the participant's responsibility. The AUDAX CLUB PARISIEN cannot be held responsible in case of loss or theft.

The organiser cannot be held responsible for the return costs of participants who have abandoned.

Article 9 - Brevet Card

A brevet will be distributed to each participant at the start. The participant is responsible for keeping it in good condition.

Riders must always carry their brevet card and badge and must personally ensure that their card is stamped and badge registered at every control, whether it is an official control or a secret control.

The loss of the brevet card, the absence of just one control stamp, whether it be a fixed or secret control, or an improper or incomplete stamp will lead to the non validation of the brevet.

Article 10 - Control operations

Each participant must present himself at their chosen timeframe for the cycle check on Sunday 19 August 2007, which takes place from 08:30 am to 07:00 pm. Once the cycle has been checked, the participant will go to the gymnasium. On presentation of ID (passport, identity card etc.) he will be given the route book and his frame plate, He will then sign the start sheet.

Start control:

This will take place at the "Gymnase des Droits de l'Homme", one or two hours before each official start.

Attention :

Any brevet cards not stamped at the start will lead to non validation of the brevet.

Start:

At the request of the police, riders will start in groups.

For safety reasons, cars and motorcycles will guide participants through Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines (15 km). It is forbidden to overtake them (penalty).

Article 11 - Opening and closure of the controls

The times in the brevet card detailing the opening and closing hours of the controls must scrupulously be respected.

Note:

For those participants departing at 08:00 pm and 09:00 pm (Tandems etc.) there are no fixed opening times. But the finish control will open for a minimum time of 42h51.

Participants MUST arrive within the time limits indicated for each control. Only a serious material incident will be accepted as justification for late arrival; the time must in any case be recovered at the latest within the next one or two controls

Article 12 - Validation, abandonments and failure to comply with time limits.

All participants whose brevet has been accorded in the correct manner, will receive a medal engraved with the registered time, (including any penalty). This medal has been specially made for the 16^{th} PBP.

Participants who abandon or who are clearly out of time at a check point must hand over their brevet card and his frame plate.

To confirm that these have been handed over, he must sign the brevet card in the presence of the controller.

The various documents will be returned together with the results of the 16° PBP during January 2008.

Article 13 - Medical control

A control may be organised at the request of the Ministry for Youth and Sport, which will bear the costs. If a participant refuses to undergo this control or is diagnosed POSITIVE, this will lead to non validation of the brevet.

Article 14 - Support vehicles

They are forbidden on the cyclists' official route. Participants wishing to have a support vehicle (even for just one control) must indicate this when registering. A special itinerary has been provided for support cars.

Participants are informed that both the participant and the driver of the accompanying vehicle must sign a solemn pledge outlining the type of assistance to be provided to the participant and absolute compliance with the present regulations by the support crew, on pain of penalties.

Article 15 - Penalties and appeals

ACP reserves the right to refuse entry to Paris-Brest-Paris and to disqualify riders in the event of major transgressions.

Violations of the regulations recorded by the official controllers, who will be clearly identified, will be penalised according to the following scale.

Participants will be informed of the penalties, which will be noted in the brevet card, either immediately or after a warning at the next check point; penalties are applicable to the overall time only.

No penalty (stoppage) will be applied during the event.

Penalties will be cumulative in the event of further infractions.

SCALE	OE	DENIA	I TIES
JCALL		I LINA	LIILS

SCALE OF FERALILES
Overtaking cars or motorbikes at the start of the event	1 h
Absence of lighting at night, or insufficient visibility	1 h
Non respect of the highway code - Use of mobile phone while cycling	1 h
Pacing by someone not taking part in the event	1 h

It is explicitly stated that cyclists take part in the event solely at their own responsibility. Any participant ceding his brevet card to a third party will be disqualified. This action absolves the organisers of responsibility in the event of any accident suffered or caused by this third party during the event.

All complaints must be addressed by registered letter within 5 days after the finish to:

Monsieur THÉOBALD Pierre - Président de la commission PBP 124, avenue du Mal de Lattre de Tassigny - 93260 LES LILAS

Article 16 - Publicity

Riders authorise the organisers or their proxies such as partners and media organisations to use static or moving images on which they may appear and which have been captured during their participation in Paris-Brest-Paris Randonneur for publicity purposes, including promotional material and advertising, throughout the world and for for the longest period provided by the law, regulations, and treaties in force.

Article 17

The PBP commission reserves the right to modify these regulations and to take decisions if need be for eventualities not foreseen in the present regulations.

It may modify the conditions under which the event is conducted.

As far as possible, decisions or possible modifications will be brought to the attention of the participants :

- either by using the press, radio, and Internet, at the latest three days before the date of the event if a possible cancellation is foreseen.

- or during the event by loudspeaker and posters.
