Between Controls: RUSA e-news & updates

July 18, 2022 | Issue: 15

MISSION STATEMENT - VALUES - ORGANIZATIONAL OBJECTIVES

We introduced the idea of revising our mission statement last July in our inaugural Between Controls issue here. We are excited to unveil our new mission statement, values and organizational principles.

MISSION: Randonneurs USA promotes non-competitive, long-distance cycling and serves as the sanctioning body for randonneuring events in the United States.

VALUES: We value the principles of collaboration, self-sufficiency and camaraderie over competition.

ORGANIZATIONAL PRINCIPLES:

In order to accomplish its mission. Randonneurs USA:

- Certifies long-distance bicycle events organized by regional clubs and organizations in the United States.
- Serves as a liaison between members and international randonneuring organizations
- Supports the needs of a diverse network of regional brevet administrators.
- Coordinates and publishes a national collection of permanent routes and an annual calendar of domestic randonneuring events.
- Celebrates randonneuring and informs members of important developments through the quarterly journal American Randonneur.
- Maintains comprehensive rules for riders and organizers as the national randonneuring governing body.
- Awards long-distance cyclists for their accomplishments.

Thank you to the following members who have contributed to this process over the past year: Deb Banks, Bill Bryant, Jan Dembinski, John Lee Ellis, George Swain, Larry Jindra, Eric Norris, Dawn Piech, Jon Spangler, Lois Springsteen, Andrew Thomas, Dave Thompson and Scott Weinberg.

WE SALUTE YOU!

To all of our members who were a part of the Race Across America (RAAM), Trans American Bike Race (Trans Am) and/or Tour Divide, as either racers or support crew, we salute you.

In addition, great job to all of our members who have participated in Grand Randonnees so far this season, both in the United States and Internationally.

And to all of our members who are striving to reach a personal goal in a brevet, populaire and/or team event, way to go!

We see you. We salute all of you! Way to make Randonneurs USA proud.
